The Breadwinner Chapter 2 Summary & Analysis | LitCharts

As children in Afghanistan, Amir and Hassan would climb trees and reflect sunlight into their neighbors' homes to annoy them, or else shoot walnuts at a neighbor's dog with a slingshot. Hassan never wanted to do these things, but he would not deny Amir if Amir asked him, and if they were caught Hassan would always take the blame.

Summary and Analysis ...

Chapter 2 of Genesis begins with the report of the completion of the heavens and earth and everything hosted in them. After everything was finished, God then rested on the seventh day from all his work and blessed the seventh day. The chapter then transitions into the generations of the heavens and the earth, giving specific details of what took place in Genesis chapter one, but from the beginning of day six (see our study on that for further clarification).
